Comments about Why Make Sense? - Hot Chip

Ichalote

If anyone had a copy of the EP they're willing to sell drop me a message

Bys

my new favorite hot chip album. pressing sounds as good as it gets.

TheFresh

and the ep is great

Bliss

Just bought this version but no EP with it, no mention on the sticker of the EP either

RUL

Without a "special edition" sticker, you probably bought the standard edition (i.e. not this one).

Rolling Flipper

Are you sure you haven't bought WIGLP313? The addition of the EP and the corresponding slightly wider sleeve and extra 'X' in the catalogue number are the only differences.

Fenritaur

This album is certainly a grower - the deluxe vinyl has hardly left me turntable in over a week. Great pressing too that sounds fantastic on headphones. I've booked tickets to see them live at Brixton in October. I really hope that they perform the entire 'Separate EP'.

Deodorant for your language

I was actually kinda disappointed with this album (except for Huarache Lights of course) in terms of my standards for Hot Chip, and then I listened to the bonus EP...why weren't these 4 tracks on the album?!?! All of them are better than a lot of songs on the album...at least they rewarded those of us who paid for the deluxe!

crazy mashine

Ok guys, just listened to the EP, I understand now, kinda mind blowing hehe, now re-playing the album and booking tickets to see them live (never did, always wanted...)

I'm a Russian Occupant

I agree completely! Burning Up is soooo amazing. All 4 songs should be on the LP...but I guess rafika is right, 'Why Make Sense?' Keep em 'Separate'.

Mysterious Wrench

"why weren't these 4 tracks on the album?!?!" -> hence the album's title :pJust joking, haven't listened to the EP yet but my first listen of the LP is enjoyable !

Goll

I'm playing the EP more than the album at the moment even though there are some gems on Why Make Sense. Re-Harmanize really should have made the final cut along with 'Burning Up'.
