Comments about Life Of Leisure - Washed Out

Raelin

I'm curious why everyone is shooting for an original? They're actually inferior in sound to the repress.

Dream

Great music, but my particular pressing is off center. Of all the things to screw up on a pressing, it being off-center seems the most unforgivable. Watching my TT arm sway back and forth throughout the record is rather sad. After a careful listing, I must also say this is not a good mastering/pressing. Glad it came with a download code because the LP just sounds rather flat overall with clipping in parts. Feels like it was a CD sourced pressing. Not thrilled with this one. Great music, though.

Sennel

Is it really limited if the label just keeps doing repress after repress?

Realistic

'Get Up' samples Change - Got To Get Up.

Ishnllador

This EP provides and excellent range of "hipster" beats accompanied by smooth "Synth-pop" lyrics! Both the A side and B side have excellent tracks! If your into electro/pop I strongly recommened it! 5/5!

generation of new

Feel It All Around... defines a generation? When you sit your kids down 20 yrs. from now to watch your Portlandia box-set, then they'll know. Like as iconic as the opening tune to Kids In The Hall, but cooler... (or chiller, either way)

Invisibile

How would one know which pressing he or she has?

LoboThommy

After a little research, I notice that the different pressings have different limited runs. The 2nd press has 2000 limited run, but it's indicated as a 2nd press not an original.

Vetitic

OK, thanx.

LiTTLe_NiGGa_in_THE_CribE

I believe this Life Of Leisure was pressed in a limited run of 2000, it should say on the back of the sleeve

Ger

"Feel It All Around" uses a slowed down sample of "Gary Low - I Want You" (1983).

Laitchai

thank you :), ive been wondering about this for weeks now.
Scream_I LOVE YOU
"Hold Out" samples "West Coast Drive" by V.I.P. Connection.
