Golden freddi

repress now in stock at rush hour .nl http://www.rushhour.nl/store\_detailed.php?item=85506

Ytli

Went to their website and it's out of stock already

Keramar

Sounds amazing, but a single disc 33RPM pressing would have been ideal. Flipping sides every 8-9 minutes is a bit much! Keep the 2x45RPM for a deluxe edition.

Chuynopana

The original version was also pressed on a 2x12inch format, so I am very happy the label decided to stick to the artists' original vision and concept for this album.

Globus

the bass on C2 is to die for. Fantastic pressing

Maximilianishe

Audio quality is amazing, dont know why everyone is making a big deal about this being an amazing reissue tho, doesnt not even include any literature about the release or the people involved, how it came to be etc. Incredible album but the label could have done some research or an interview, dug up some archival photos, anything to make it special. Very happy nonetheless that this amazing record is back out there in some form!

Qutalan

Shisen is so beautiful, I can't describe, it's like walking for so long, from India to Japan, such a long and delightful journey ..!

White_Nigga

so happy to have ordered it! joy!!

Bad Sunny

Xanzay

Repress is long gone for all practical purposes: watch the price ramp up.

Nalmergas

Glad to hear that is the case. I was perhaps more ruminating upon how quickly an alleged run of 1K copies would be snapped up by what is clearly a very solid demand. I found an opportunity to purchase one several weeks ago and took it. I hope that it reaches as many new ears as possible: it is truly a unique work.

Chinon

more copies on the way

Ericaz

Beautiful repress. Amazing attention to detail - audio and visuals. Bought mine at the new Commend store (run by RVNG) on Forsyth Street in NYC.

Burirus

Pre-ordered mine in Germany. Can't wait for the arrival.

Gelgen

1000 copies only ...

Nilador

More copies should be coming soon.

Fearlesshunter

I am sure it will.

Deeroman

934 'Want' the original on discogs, plus 150+ people 'Want' the repress ... and that's just those who can be bothered to sign up on discogs. Pretty sure this will sell out immediately.

zzzachibis

Only! :-D
